

PROFILE

Constanza Metzadour

Socia Fundadora

I am Constanza Metzadour, a graduate in International Relations, with training and experience in conflict mediation and restorative justice. My background includes teaching in contexts of confinement and community mediation, as well as participation in programs and projects that promote social justice and human rights.

Founding Member of SAJuR.

Education

- Degree in International Relations, Universidad Católica de Córdoba, 2013.
- Training in conflict mediation, Universidad Nacional de Córdoba, 2015.

Professional Experience

- Certified mediator in community conflicts since 2017.
- Adjunct professor of Public International Law and Political Negotiation and Mediation, Universidad Católica de Córdoba.
- Coordinator of the Productive Clusters Area at the Chamber of Metalworking and Components Manufacturers of Córdoba (2017-2021).
- Contributor to a pilot community mediation project at Justice Access Centers with the Ombudsperson's Office of Córdoba (2019-2020).
- Intern at the Gender Crimes Tribunal in Israel, focused on access to justice for victims of sexual and domestic violence (2021).

Participation in Events and Projects

- Speaker on restorative justice and human rights topics at various forums and seminars.

- Participation in dialogues between Palestinian and Israeli communities.